

Hosted and organized by Steelworld, 6th Asian Steel Conference 2006 concluded on September 30th, 2006.

'Asian Steel Conference' is now an established event and is seen as the biggest gathering of iron & steel industry professionals in Asian region. Steel business houses from regions like Indian sub-continent, China, Gulf, SE Asia, Europe participate to make this interaction more meaningful and complete. The conference addresses the issues of prime importance to the steel industry in Asian region.

The conference was inaugurated done by Dr. S.K. Gupta, Mr. Mossa Raza. This event was proved to be a great success, attracting large number of delegates from many regions. The Conference created a platform for industrial experts and researchers representing global producers, suppliers and end-users of steel-making raw materials, import & export companies, world steel industrial organizations, research & consulting institutions, shipping and insurance companies, governmental industrial departments, banking sectors, etc. to exchange knowledge & ideas, strengthen communication and understanding, explore potential market and clinch business deals. The Keynote address was given by Mr. Moosa Raza, President, Indian Steel Alliance.

Prominent scholars and senior executives from Iron & Steel Association, Tata Refractories Ltd, Balaji Coke Industry Ltd, Essar Power Ltd, EICS Technologies Pvt Ltd, Steel Authority of India Ltd, Flat products Equipments (I)Ltd, Jaiswals Neco Group, M.A.N Industries, Reliance Logistics Ltd., Mundra Ports Ltd., Tradeline L.L.C Dubai, Essar

Steel Ltd, Ispat Industries Ltd, were invited to give their expert opinions on global steel industry and raw material supply/demand, domestic steel industry development policies, iron ore import coordination, sourcing of steel-making raw materials investment, application experiences of competing ferrous materials by steel mills, shipping transport and logistics services, competing ferrous materials as well as partnership between overseas iron ore suppliers and domestic steel magnates, etc. An Exposition had being organised along side the conference. This exposition showcased new technologies, processes & products and inturn enhanced business.

{ CD of the conference proceeding along with attendees database is available. Please contact Steelworld Office }

Tel. : 91-22-26192376 / 26171575 / 26171866 • Fax : 91-22-2616 2817 • E-mail : info@steelworld.com